Hesket Park

A luxury new development of leisure homes nestled between the Lake District and the beautiful Eden Valley.

Hesket Park

Luxury Holiday Homes

The park is open all year round

This is an “All New” Development having been completely re-developed from the ground up, with all new services i.e. drains, electricity, water mains, roads and landscaping. On the edge of the Lake District National Park, midway between the roman city of Carlisle and the bustling market town of Penrith, we are ideally situated for easy access to and from the Lakes. Junctions 41 and 42 of the M6 are both just 5 miles from the park, making Scotland, the North East, the Midlands and the Lakes all within easy reach. Local buses run to and from the park entrance, Post Office and shops are approximately 5 mins. away in the villages of Armathwaite and Plumpton. Cumbria is one England’s most beautiful counties, the area is renowned for its dramatic landscapes, Lakeland mountains to the West, the North Pennines to the East, the area is one of undulating meadows, beautiful villages and historic market towns.
